MR. WALKUP'S TROUBLES.
 Taken Into Custody as He Was About to Leave the City and Afterwards Discharged.

Alva M. Walkup, the contractor who completed the Federal building in this city, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Ryan on a warrant issued by Judge Edwards. Mr. Walkup was taken into custody at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot about 4 o'clock, after he had boarded a train for Philadelphia, near which his home is.
 The arrest was made at the instance of the Hunt & Connell company, the treasurer of which, Mr. Hunt, said that Mr. Walkup is indebted to his firm over $600 for work done on the Federal building.
 Mr. Walkup and his attorney, Mr. Chaplin, of Philadelphia, came to this city Tuesday night to make a settlement with the government for work on the building. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Walkup received a check for $4,000, the balance due him. He refused to pay the sum the Hunt & Connell company claimed, or even the amount which he admits owing them.
 He was, therefore, arrested for attempting to take his money and effects out of the jurisdiction of the court for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. He was given a hearing before Judge Edwards at 5 o'clock, at which he was represented by Mr. Chaplin and Attorneys E. N. Willard and H. A. Knapp. Attorney T. F. Wells appeared for the Hunt & Connell company.
 The judge did not think there was evidence to warrant the holding of Mr. Walkup and discharged him.

EULOGY PRONOUNCED AT GRAVE

Attorney W. Gaylord Thomas Was the Orator—Wedding of John McNichols and Miss Bridget Barry—Mrs. Elizabeth James Interred—Personal Mention—Funeral of Robert Armstrong—Fellows Will Remain.

The funeral of James Butcher took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence on North Lincoln avenue. The service was conducted by Rev. T. J. Collins of the Scranton Street Baptist church, assisted by Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The quartet consisting of Miss Bertha Ross, Mrs. Frank Beck, Lou Jones, and Harry Acker, rendered appropriate selections during the service. The following organizations attended in a body: Slocum lodge, No. 975, Independent Order of Old Fellows; Hyde Park lodge, No. 508, Knights of Pythias; Hyde Park encampment, No. 249, of Old Fellows and Capouse Miner's Accidental fund. The funeral cortege, which was a long one, moved out to the Washburn Street cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were selected from the different lodges as follows: Thomas J. Williams, Henry J. Davies, David Ireland, William Wick, Thomas Jones and John Reid. Attorney William Gaylord Thomas delivered an eulogy at the grave, in which he spoke of "The Duties of Manhood."

Wedded Last Evening.
 John McNichols, of Seventeenth street, and Miss Bridget Barry, of the Central, were united in wedlock last evening at 7 o'clock in St. Patrick's church. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of people by Rev. J. B. Whelan. The bridesmaid was Miss Sabina Bolton, and the groomsmen Thomas Malherin, both of this side. The bride and bridesmaid were attired in pretty costumes and carried bouquets of roses. Mr. and Mrs. McNichols are well known and their large number of friends wish them success.

Mrs. Elizabeth James Buried.
 The funeral obsequies over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth James occurred yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son in law, John Davis, on North Hyde Park avenue. Rev. W. S. Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, conducted the service. The pall bearers were: Thomas Richards, David Morgan, J. M. Thomas, David S. Evans and John J. Hopkins. Interment was made at the Washburn street cemetery.

 William C. Sames Says He Was Not Six Months in Arrears.

 It was stated in these columns a month ago, on information which purported to be reliable, that the William Connell Hose company would soon be presented gratis with the irregular strip of ground at Pitston avenue and Brook street, bordering on the creek. Mr. William Connell owns the land and how true the fact is, of any disposition on his part to bestow it to the Hose company, this article does not intend to state, as Mr. Connell was away on a southern trip when the rumor first got about and since his return home has given himself up to needed rest, thereby not warranting any intrusion in business matters. Although the location of the hose house at present is, no doubt, central enough, it is not close enough to the large silk woaden and cotton mills, if a blaze at any time unfortunately got a start in them. The liberal and even lavish generosity of Mr. Connell in his dealings with the Hose company, is responsible for the credence given to the rumor.
 Views on Ill Health.
 A prominent practitioner of the South Side is responsible for the statement that this city has passed through a fiercer and more fatal siege of disease than ever before visited the valley, not even, excepting the noted periods of smallpox epidemic. He says that more people have contracted sickness than succumbed to the smallpox, and that the death toll is greater in proportion. It is no specific disease that is affecting the people, other than the general forms, such as pneumonia, typhoid, pleurisy and bronchitis. According to his statement, the rate of mortality has been twice as great as in any former winter and spring in the history of this city.
 Return of Rev. August Lange.
 Rev. August Lange, pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, who spent a three-months' vacation in his native land, Germany, will arrive here probably tomorrow night or Saturday morning. Rev. Mr. Lange, while enjoying his rest, from time to time sent letters to the chairman of the executive board in regard to his health, stating that he would be able to re-enter upon his pastorate with vigor. During the absence of the pastor the pulpit has been very worthily filled by Rev. William Webber, who has earned the appreciation of every member of the parish.

 Scranton's Business Interests.
 THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.
 Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please I have notice at the office.

WANT THE SALE SET ASIDE.
 William C. Sames Says He Was Not Six Months in Arrears.
 William C. Sames yesterday obtained a rule to set aside the sheriff's sale of a property on Maple street, South Side, of which he was the owner. It was sold at the instance of the German Building and Loan association to E. Robinson.

THEY WOULD BE NEARER THE FACTORIES IF A FIRE BROKE OUT—Ravages of Disease Unparalleled—Return of Pastor Lange—Personal Notes and Paragraphs Picked Up Across Roaring Brook.
 It was stated in these columns a month ago, on information which purported to be reliable, that the William Connell Hose company would soon be presented gratis with the irregular strip of ground at Pitston avenue and Brook street, bordering on the creek. Mr. William Connell owns the land and how true the fact is, of any disposition on his part to bestow it to the Hose company, this article does not intend to state, as Mr. Connell was away on a southern trip when the rumor first got about and since his return home has given himself up to needed rest, thereby not warranting any intrusion in business matters. Although the location of the hose house at present is, no doubt, central enough, it is not close enough to the large silk woaden and cotton mills, if a blaze at any time unfortunately got a start in them. The liberal and even lavish generosity of Mr. Connell in his dealings with the Hose company, is responsible for the credence given to the rumor.
 Views on Ill Health.
 A prominent practitioner of the South Side is responsible for the statement that this city has passed through a fiercer and more fatal siege of disease than ever before visited the valley, not even, excepting the noted periods of smallpox epidemic. He says that more people have contracted sickness than succumbed to the smallpox, and that the death toll is greater in proportion. It is no specific disease that is affecting the people, other than the general forms, such as pneumonia, typhoid, pleurisy and bronchitis. According to his statement, the rate of mortality has been twice as great as in any former winter and spring in the history of this city.
 Return of Rev. August Lange.
 Rev. August Lange, pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, who spent a three-months' vacation in his native land, Germany, will arrive here probably tomorrow night or Saturday morning. Rev. Mr. Lange, while enjoying his rest, from time to time sent letters to the chairman of the executive board in regard to his health, stating that he would be able to re-enter upon his pastorate with vigor. During the absence of the pastor the pulpit has been very worthily filled by Rev. William Webber, who has earned the appreciation of every member of the parish.
 Personal.
 The marriage of Annie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evan T. Morgan, of Mineoka, and John Medlar, of Taylor, operator at the Mineoka station of the Jersey Central railroad, is announced to take place April 28.
 The forty-year-old daughter of John Evans of Pittston avenue, is very dangerously ill of diphtheria.
 Patrick Philbin, formerly of Mineoka, returned from Pittsburgh yesterday.
 Mess Sarah McNamara, of South Washington avenue, is afflicted with a very severe cold.
 George Fashold, of Pitston avenue, is confined to his home with an attack of influenza.
 Shorter Paragraphs.
 It is not the place run by Gus Schimpff on Cedar avenue that Henry Lautscher has leased, but the hotel of Gus Rempe.
 The contested election cases of the Twelfth ward, will be heard in open court Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The arguments of the opposing contestors will be made before Judge Edwards.
 The banquet of the Neptune Engine company set down for next Monday night promises to be a social affair of the first water. The invitations have been sent out by the committee.
